

LEWES FESTIVAL OF SONG | 2016

A summer weekend brimming over with song
St. Anne's Church, High St. Lewes

Friday 1st July - 6pm

Strings & songs around our shores

Singers from the Royal College of Music, with string group Ensemble Reza
Barber, Holst, Butterworth, Vaughan Williams & Clarke

Saturday 2nd July - 12pm

Despite & still : ecstatic twentieth century songs

Alice Privett, soprano & Chad Vindin, piano
Harbison, Barber, Messiaen & Ravel

Saturday 2nd July - 7.30pm

None but the lonely heart - a Russian recital

Pauls Putnins, baritone & Nancy Cooley, piano
Tchaikovsky, Musorgsky, Rachmaninov, Borodin & Sviridov

Sunday 3rd July - 3pm

À cappella with flowers and birds

The Baroque Collective Singers conducted by John Hancorn
Poulenc, Britten, Madrigals, Hindemith, Janequin, Elgar & Parry

Sunday 3rd July - 6pm

From here to Spain, and across the Atlantic

Mary Plazas, soprano & Nancy Cooley, piano
Obradors, Britten, Copland & De Falla

Tickets - £50 for all 5 concerts

Saturday & Sunday evening concerts £15, other concerts £12, under 16 half -price from Lewes Tourist information Centre, Phone 01273 483448, email lewes.tic@lewes.gov.uk

Painting by Simon Dale

Follow Lewes Festival of Song on Facebook